Federal Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 4 provides that, “[i]f a defendant is not served within 90 days after the complaint is filed, the court—on motion or on its own after notice to the plaintiff—must dismiss the action without prejudice against that defendant or order that service be made within a specified time.” FED. R. CIV. P. 4(m) “But if the plaintiff shows good cause for the failure, the court must extend the time for service for an appropriate period.” Id.

The Complaint in this case was entered on June 20, 2023 (Docket Entry 1); the service deadline was September 18, 2023. There has been no showing that Defendant has been served. If Plaintiff seeks an extension of time for service, it must make a showing of good cause to support the extension.
